GENESIS

Thomas L. Constable, Th.D.

Dr. Thomas L. Constable began a life of ministry as a teacher/professor at Dallas Theological Seminary in 1966 until his retirement in May 2011. In addition to teaching thousands of young men and women in the Bible Exposition Department for 45 years, Tom also founded and directed the Field Education Department (1970-85), founded and directed the Center for Biblical Studies (1973), directed the Doctor of Ministry degree program (1979-96) and during his last 15 years (1996-2011) served as the Department Chairman of Bible Exposition.

He has written commentaries on all 66 books of the Bible that continue to influence countless people all over the world through "Tom Constable's Expository Notes on the Bible". Dr. Constable's notes are available here. Tyndale Seminary Press has published Thomas Constable's Notes on the Bible in book form that may be purchased from various retailers.
