Great Doctrines of the Bible

W.A. CRISWELL, PH.D.

Wallie Amos Criswell (1909–2002), was an American pastor, author, and a two-term elected president of the Southern Baptist Convention (1968–1970). In 1944 Criswell was called to replace George W. Truett as the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas, where he would spend the remainder of his life, preaching more than four thousand sermons from its pulpit. During his tenure membership grew from 7,800 to 26,000, with weekly Sunday School attendance in excess of 5,000. The church expanded to multiple buildings covering five blocks in downtown Dallas, eventually becoming the largest Southern Baptist church in the world. Criswell became widely known for expository biblical preaching at a popular level. Audio recordings of Criswell's preaching began in December 1953, and over 4000 of his expository sermons are available free of charge in audio, video, and searchable transcript form at the W. A. Criswell Sermon Library website, one of the largest online collections by a single pastor in the world. It is sponsored and maintained by the non-profit W.A. Criswell Foundation which also supports Criswell College.
