Resources by R.C. Sproul, PhD

Dr. R. C. Sproul

"Loving a holy God is beyond our moral power. The only kind of God we can love by our sinful nature is an unholy god, an idol made by our own hands. Unless we are born of the Spirit of God, unless God sheds His holy love in our hearts, unless He stoops in His grace to change our hearts, we will not love Him . . . To love a holy God requires grace, grace strong enough to pierce our hardened hearts and awaken our moribund souls."

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Dr. Robert Charles Sproul (1939-2017) was an American, Calvinist theologian, and pastor. He was the founder and chairman of Ligonier Ministries (named after the Ligonier Valley just outside of Pittsburgh, where the ministry started as a study center for college and seminary students) and can be heard daily on the Renewing Your Mind radio broadcast in the United States and throughout 60 countries. Ligonier hosts several theological conferences each year, including the main conference held each year in Orlando, Florida, at which Sproul was one of the primary speakers. Sproul held degrees from Westminster College, Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, the Free University of Amsterdam, and Whitefield Theological Seminary, and he has taught at numerous colleges and seminaries, including Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando and Knox Theological Seminary in Ft. Lauderdale.

He was Senior Minister of Preaching and Teaching at Saint Andrew's Chapel in Sanford, Florida, where he began preaching in 1997. Sproul was an ardent advocate of Calvinism in his many books and audio and video publications, and he was also known for his advocacy of the Thomistic approach to Christian apologetics and his rejection of both evidentialism and presuppositionalism.

R. C. Sproul was ordained to the gospel ministry by the Pittsburgh Presbytery (UPUSA) on July 18, 1965. From 1965 to 1966 he served as Instructor in Philosophy and Theology at Westminster College. From 1966 to 1968 he served as Assistant Professor of Theological Studies at Gordon College. From 1968 to 1969 he served as Assistant Professor of Philosophical Theology at Conwell School of Theology. From 1969 to 1971 he served as Minister of Theology at College Hill United Presbyterian Church. From 1971 to 1981 he served at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary as Visiting Professor of Apologetics.

Also, starting in 1971, he served as Director for The Coalition for Christian Outreach, Inc. until 1976. 1971 was also the year that Ligonier Ministries was founded, and he has served as Chairman of that ministry from that time through the present. Starting in 1977, he was an executive committee member of the International Council on Biblical Inerrancy, until 1983. He also served as Director of Prison Fellowship, Inc. from 1979 through 1984 and Director of Evangelism Explosion III, International from 1980 through 1981. From 1980 to 1995 he served as Professor of Systematic Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary. During this time at Reformed Theological Seminary, he held the John Dyer Trimble, Sr. Chair of Systematic Theology from 1987 to 1995. He also served as Director of the Foundation for Reformation from 1990 through 1999 and from 1982 through the present has served as Director of Serve International, Inc. From 1995 to 2004 he served as Distinguished Professor of Systematic Theology and Apologetics at Knox Theological Seminary.

R. C. Sproul was married to Vesta Ann of Pittsburgh, PA and is survived by two grown children – a daughter, Sherrie Sproul Dick, and a son, R. C. Sproul, Jr. R. C. Sproul, Sr. and his wife last resided in Orlando, Florida. In addition to being an excellent Theologian and Author, Sproul also enjoyed reading, golf, sketching and painting, music (piano and violin), and hunting. He had a keen interest in a modern Christian Reformation. May God grant that we would have such a Reformation.

SELECTED PUBLICATAIONS (PAPERBACKS)

Sproul was a prolific author who has written more than 60 books and many articles for evangelical publications. He signed the 1978 Chicago Statement on Biblical Inerrancy, which affirmed the traditional view of Biblical inerrancy, and he wrote a commentary on that document titled Explaining Inerrancy. He also served as the editor of the Reformation Study Bible which has appeared in several editions and was also known as the New Geneva Study Bible. Sproul's work The Holiness of God is considered a modern classic on the subject of God's character, and his book Not a Chance: The Myth of Chance in Modern Science and Cosmology was highly praised by those who reject the materialism advocated by some in the scientific community. Other standout works include:

1993

The Soul’s Quest for God. Wheaton, IL: Tyndale House Publishers. All Christians hunger for a deeper knowledge of God. We are, in fact, on a quest, to be conformed to His image. Drawing from Biblical portraits and the giants of church history, this book takes us from the beginning of the quest in regeneration to its fulfillment in heaven when we shall see Him as He is.

Lion and Lamb Apologetics'

Doubt and Assurance. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books and Ligonier Ministries. Adapted from articles appearing in Tabletalk, this book examines how doubts about the faith assail us, and true assurance uplifts us. Edited by R.C. Sproul, this book includes chapters by Steve Brown, John Gerstner, Roger Nicole, Os Guinness and others.

Before the Face of God – Book II. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books and Ligonier Ministries. Adapted from 1990 Tabletalk devotionals, this book covers the book of Luke in a verse by verse fashion. With 260 daily studies and practical suggestions for living out your faith, this book explores the life of Christ and His Good News.

Not A Chance: The Myth of Chance in Modern Science and Cosmology. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Book House. This book exposes the chance theory of the universe's origin for what it is: a logical absurdity and a scientific impossibility. The book is packed with compelling content and helpful graphics, and can help to defend reasonable faith against unreasonable alternatives.

Ephesians. Ross-shire, ( Scotland) Great Britain: Christian Focus Publications. This commentary looks at the issues raised by Paul as he dealt with the Ephesian church. Verse by verse it explores the powerful message of God's sovereign choice and the importance of the church to the believer.

Before the Face of God – Book III. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books and Ligonier Ministries. Adapted from the 1991 Tabletalk devotionals, this book surveys the Old Testament. With over 250 daily studies, and practical advice for Christian living, this book explores the history of God's people and God's work among us.

*Grace Unknown*. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books. This book shows that the theology of the Protestant Reformers of the 16th century is simply an accurate, systematic summary of the teachings of the Bible. An easy to read style combined with helpful illustrations teaches the reader the foundations of Reformed Theology and its key points.

*Willing to Believe*. ( <http://www.monergismbooks.com/willing4120.html>) Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books. This book argues for a return to the biblical doctrine of God's sovereignty over salvation, giving historical, biblical and logical reasons for rejecting the "free will" position commonly held today.

*The Priest with Dirty Clothes*. Nashville, TN: Tommy Nelson. R.C. Sproul's second children's book tells the story of a mud-covered priest who can only find cleansing from the Great Prince who offers "new clothes for the heart."

If There's a God, Why Are There Atheists? Orlando, FL: Ligonier Ministries. Previously published in 1988 by Tyndale House Publishers, and in 1974 by Bethany Fellowship under the title The Psychology of Atheism. Analysis of why men reject the God of the Bible in favor of lesser deities.

*The Holiness of God* – Revised and Expanded. (<http://www.monergismbooks.com/holinessgod9655.html>) Wheaton, IL: Tyndale House Publishers. Original version published in 1985. An explanation of what is perhaps the most important, yet least understood, attribute of God—His holiness. New material added.

*The Last Days According to Jesus*. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books. A response to the skeptic's charge of error in Christ's prophecies.

*The Reformation Study Bible* (in NKJV). Nashville, TN: Thomas Nelson. Previously published in 1995 under the title The New Geneva Study Bible. *Dark Side of Islam*. Wheaton, IL: Crossway Books. R.C. interviews a former Muslim who explains little known aspects of this religion.

*Running the Race*. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books. A book designed for recent graduates to help them face the issues they will soon encounter.

*Defending Your Faith*. Wheaton, IL: Crossway Books. An introduction to apologetics, the science of defending the Christian faith.

*The Glory of Christ*. Phillipsburg, NJ: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishers. Previously published in 1990 by Tyndale House Publishing. Though humbled as a man, the glory of Christ shone forth at strategic points in the life of Christ. From the angels song of "glory to the new born King" to the promise of His return on clouds of glory, Christ leaves us in awe and worship.

*The Soul's Quest for God*. Phillipsburg, NJ: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishers. Previously published in 1993 by Tyndale House Publishing. All Christians hunger for a deeper knowledge of God. We are, in fact, on a quest, to be conformed to His image. Drawing from Biblical portraits and the giants of church history, this book takes us from the beginning of the quest in regeneration to its fulfillment in heaven when we shall see Him as He is.

*The Intimate Marriage*. Phillipsburg, NJ: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishers. Previously published in 1986 by Tyndale House Publishing, and in 1975 by Bethany Fellowship under the title Discovering the Intimate Marriage. A Christian understanding of marriage with special emphasis on the meaning of intimacy.

*The Character of God*. Ventura, CA: Regal Books. Previously published in 1995 by Servant Publications, and in 1987 by Thomas Nelson under the title One Holy Passion. The believer's quest to know God the Father is the basis of this study of His biblically revealed attributes and characteristics.

*The Invisible Hand*. Phillipsburg, NJ: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishers. Previously published in 1996 by Word Publishing. This book examines the doctrine of providence. Using both biblical and personal examples, Dr. Sproul demonstrates that we as Christians can put our complete trust in God who works all things for the good of those who love Him.

Scripture Alone. Phillipsburg, NJ: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishers. The book Scripture Alone is a statement of the Protestant doctrine of Scripture consisting of Dr. Sproul's most important articles on the subject as well as his commentary on the Chicago Statement on Biblical Inerrancy.

The Reformation Study Bible – ESV, Orlando, FL: Ligonier Ministries. This first Reformed Study Bible since the original Geneva Bible of 1560 provides study aids including textual notes, chapter introductions, theological sidebars, and more. Dr. Sproul served as general editor of the project and wrote the notes for the book of James.

The Unexpected Jesus. Ross-shire, (Scotland) Great Britain: Christian Focus Publications: Christian Focus. Previously published in 1995 under the title The Mighty Christ. An introductory level explanation of what the Bible teaches concerning the person and work of Jesus Christ.

What Is Reformed Theology? Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books. Previously published in 1997 under the title Grace Unknown. This book shows that the theology of the Protestant Reformers of the 16th century is simply an accurate, systematic summary of the teachings of the Bible. An easy to read style combined with helpful illustrations teaches the reader the foundations of Reformed Theology and its key points.

Choosing My Religion. Phillipsburg, NJ: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishers. Previously published in 1996 by Baker Books. Targeted to teenagers, this short book seeks to answer the question: Are there many paths to God, or only one?

Ultimate Issues. Phillipsburg, NJ: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishers. Previously published in 1996 by Baker Books. This book addresses the tough issues facing young adults including the purpose of everything, the value of life, the standard of right and wrong, and how one can be acceptable to God.
