We Now Have Readers in 114 Countries!

- ☞ Our international reach continues to grow. As of today, we have had people from 114 countries on every continent make use of the research we have posted on our website. Some days we see as many as 8-10 different countries making use of our material.
- ☞ That being said, as we approach the end of this year, may I ask you to please consider a special End Of The Year Gift to Lion and Lamb Apologetics? We certainly do appreciate those who make monthly donations, but right now some special large gifts would really be encouraging to us. That would be so very helpful!
- ☞ In addition, it appears that we are going to have to replace our main desktop computer which is well over 10 years old and is now gasping for breath. Because our website is so massive we need two very large solid-state drives for data storage—at least 4TB each—as well as massive amounts of processing memory.
- ☞ The best likelihood ballpark figure is $2000, which we currently do not have available. So we are turning to God's people to ask for financial help at this time. Even a one-

How Faith is Not a Work

Phillip Cary presented this paper to the Eastern Theological Society in November 2005. I had not read this before my brother sent me a copy a few weeks ago. I believe that you will find it quite informative and very helpful in sharing your faith with those who think that one's salvation requires something or some work on their part. This article provides some clear thought on the truth that one's salvation is totally because of the Grace of Almighty God.

Jesus said, "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day." (John 6:44). Peter put it this way: "And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12)

Even the Old Testament Prophet Jonah said, "Salvation belongs to the LORD!" (Jonah 2:9)
