Why do Christians Experience Suffering?

Many times, I am asked this question. Very likely you have been asked the same question by a friend or family member who is in the throes of despair. And like me, you find that you have no easy answer with which to comfort them. This suffering, this despair, this hopelessness that you or your friend may be experiencing didn't sneak up on God's blind side—for He has no blind side! But there are answers to this question of why Christians suffer.

Recent tragedies and heartaches have visited several very close friends and family members in my own life. In seeking words of comfort for those who find themselves discouraged and disheartened because of suffering, I recently ran across several excellent articles on suffering that are posted on the Crossway website that are quite helpful. The link below will take you to them and I highly recommend them to you.

As always, remember that the Grace of God is always sufficient for those who seek Him. He takes care of His children. Always!
